

Are you providing support for a loved one who is aging or has special needs?

Your employer is offering the Homethrive benefit at no cost to you so that you can give your loved ones who are aging or have special needs (and yourself) the support needed.

What is Dari?

Dari is a whole new way to navigate the challenges of caring for a loved one, powered by our team of expert Care Guides who have years of experience in aging and caregiving.

Dari gives you access to:

On-Demand Resources

Articles, podcasts, and videos on topics like Medicare enrollment, dementia, and long-term care options.

Personalized Assistance

Connect with our expert team to chat live about a specific question or get personalized recommendations for helpful products or services.

One-On-One Support

Work with your very own Care Guide expert who can help you navigate more complex situations and provide emotional support.
