

Our team of caregiving experts are on call to help you.

We can help tackle the work and worry of caring for a loved one who is aging or has special needs.

When you need more than just self-guided support and resources, there's Dari Dedicated.

Dari Dedicated gives you access to expert Care Guides to work through more complex issues one-on-one.

Medical Needs

Navigating medical needs and concerns, such as doctor's appointments, physical therapy services, hospitalizations, transportation, etc.

Health Issues

Help understanding the intricacies of challenging health issues and what to expect as things progress.

Long-Term Care

Help understanding different long-term care housing options and/or arranging home care.

Resources & Services

Locating community resources and services that can keep your loved one busy and entertained.

Trip Planning

Preparing and planning for trips or activities so you can relax and enjoy.

Emotional Support

Providing emotional support through life's challenges and transitions, especially surrounding grief and loss.

